BE THE BOSS

Start building to exit

As part of starting your business you'll need to pick your company struture. Each structure has different benefits - but how do you pick?

Fill out the sections below so that you can take this to your advisor so that they can advise you which structure would best suit you.

List the names of the people that will be involved
What is the industry your business will be in?
What personal assets or liabilities do you have?
What turn over (revenue) do you think you'll make?
What is your personal situation? Eg: married, living at home, etc
