BE THE BOSS

Be ready to scale up

To really grow your business you need several things: the right marketing plan, the right team and the right product. Once you have those, then you will be able to accelerate your business growth.

Use the organisational chart below to help you make sure that you have all the team members that you require to help you scale up your business.

For small businesses this can often be the same person. Filing this out will help you visualise the roles and people that you will need to hire.
